Job Train

We will be hearing from Chef Adam Weiner and Corporate Services Coordinator Bernita Dillard from Job Train about there program. They will outline different areas of focus for the organization and discuss how Rotarians can help with our unique skill sets. Its sure to be a great presentation.

Sad News

As many of you know, Rotarian Brad Shepherd passed away on February 6th. Brad was a loyal and dedicated Rotarian who served the club in a variety of capacities - most recently leading our holiday food drive. There are no plans for services at this time but letters of condolence can be sent to Brad's mother at:

Program Presentation

Mike Brosnan, the San Mateo County Human Trafficking Coordinator will visit with the club on the realities of human trafficking in the bay area. This isn't just a problem that comes with the Super Bowl. Mike will open our eyes to the problems and the victims.

Follow up - Stephanie Mattero from Star Vista presented to the club last week about the Foster Care Child Services available in the area. She would like everyone who attended to complete the following brief survey about the presentation to gauge if the information presented hit the mark. <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/K2DNDW3>
