Program Presentation

Jessica Hansen from KIVA will be visiting the club to talk about the micro-loan company and its program. The International Committee has over a dozen different loans in their program at this point - helping to fund women-owned businesses, healthy food/water programs and other small businesses in developing nations. Come hear their important messages about these important programs.

Hunger Programs

This past Saturday was the Club Sponsored Stop Hunger Now event. Over 70 volunteers attended the event and 10,152 meals were packaged to be sent to Asia in support of Stop Hunger Now programs across the region. A

Program Presentation

This week is a bit of a mystery... We will (hopefully) have a presentation that will both educate and excite you. Unfortunately, with the program committee meeting later this week, our presentation is super secret... Come and see what fun awaits!

Web Site Issues

In case you haven't noticed, our website is dying a slow and painful death. We are in the process of moving to a new provider that will bring us back up and running. More info to follow.

The 70th anniversary of the Rotary Club of Redwood City is upon us!! The actual date is Friday April 22 but we will be celebrating on Wednesday April 20th at BKF with the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce. We need your help in collecting photographs for the event. If you have something to share, please bring it Tuesday and/or email it to Barbara Bonilla at rotary1415@yahoo.com and she will get it into the program.
